

A Partnership with Stivers... resulted in hiring and onboarding hundreds of merchandisers and sanitizers within days.

Filling Essential Positions Quickly:

Due to COVID-19, the demand for essential products and store sanitizing grew exponentially. A nationwide retail merchandising organization partnered with Stivers to find qualified candidates immediately.

Using artificial intelligence sourcing tools and video interviewing software, Stivers mobilized recruitment efforts quickly to meet the growing demand.

Our commitment to using advanced technologies and proven processes allowed our recruitment teams to source, screen, and onboard merchandising and sanitizing professionals quickly — saving our customer valuable time and resources.

I'm amazed at how fast they were able to staff my teams with quality people. They have been a pleasure to work with!

My company has built a true partnership with Stivers!

Jayne, Director of Operations
